The U.S. was over-welmed by the year's "JAWS", which brought about "sharkmania." goers avoided the water for fear of the great shark. Other films such as "Earthquake" and "The Towering Inferno" also left moviegoers awe-stricken.

In the T.V. world, a CFHS survey concluded that "Happy Days" was the favorite among students. The show's lead character, Fonzie, became a national hero along with Kotter's "sweatshirts". The show became increasingly popular.

The Captain and Tennille became an instant hit in 1975. Their first single, "Love will keep us together", became their top no. 1 hit. "Love will keep us together" was a huge hit. Olivia Newton-John walked away with many awards. According to a WMMS survey, Bruce Springsteen's "Born to Run" was the number one album of 1975.
